

I would like to express our need for the best quality to be provided for VRS. This service has improved my husband's life enormously. Because of this great service, he is able to easily communicate to friends, family, and businesses with his natural language, ASL. We cannot impress on you enough how invaluable VRS is to us. Please continue to update and keep this service active and at its top quality.